OTHER POPULAR VARIETIES

BENGASI (Cave-Graff '43)

Bengasi is a beautiful La France pink. The color deepens toward the edge of the petals and blends into a white throat in which may be seen four rose lines which resemble a feather.

It attains better than average height, 70 to 75 inches, when grown under normal field conditions. The flower heads measure up to 36 inches. The 6 to 6½ inch florets are wide open and firmly attached. There are 18 to 22 buds on a spike, with nine fully open and six showing color. The heavily ruffled florets, six inches in width, are of excellent texture. Bengasi will bloom freely from any size bulb. Blooms from bulblets in our garden were excellent and much larger than those grown from bulblets of other varieties. When cut tight in bud, every floret will open to the tip. The buds grow close to the stem.

A yellow green foliage is characteristic of the plant. Its general excellence and fine shipping qualities label it as an outstanding commercial.

Each: Large, $3.00; Medium, $2.00; Small, $1.00. Bulblets: 25c; 10 for $2.00

RED RASCAL (Graff 1945)

A 1945 introduction which has done very well for itself considering that there were not many large bulbs cut last season. As its name implies, Red Rascal is a ruffled red, one shade darker than Intruder. There is a small white rib running down the center of the throat to the tip of the lower floret. Sometimes there are two of these. There is no flecking and the color reflexes are good. The florets measure over 5½ inches across, 7 to 8 will open, with six showing color. The buds are firmly attached to the stem. Placement and harmony are both excellent. The stem is medium heavy and straight. The flower head is 26 to 28 inches in length, the spike ranging up to 58 inches in height. There is no tendency toward disease of foliage or bulb. The flower does not burn in the sun and stands punishment and handling very well. As a seedling it won the 3-spike championship at the Wisconsin State show in 1943. Red Rascal is a worthy introduction to the red class. It blooms in about 80 to 85 days. Power of opening is great when cut tight in the bud, and it gives promise of being a good commercial.

Each: Large, $3.00; Medium, $2.00; Small, $1.00. Bulblets: 30c; 10 for $2.40

SILVER WINGS (Rutsena-Graff '45)

Silver Wings needs no introduction to the glad fan as it was one of the most noteworthy glads this past season in the States and also in Canada. It has the splendid characteristics of its parent, Picardy, from which it was segregated in 1939. Its show record has been outstanding and its commercial qualities are unlimited.

The spike stands 65 inches tall under cultural conditions. The stem is medium heavy, does not crook. The florets measure six inches across and are very ruffled. Silver Wings possesses an ethereal beauty, which is enhanced by the glistening white sheen of its florets. What a beautiful sight to behold seven or eight of these charmingly ruffled florets open at one time, with the remaining buds showing color. A total of 18 to 20 buds open on a straight spike, every one opening to the very tip, a quality which gives it appeal as one of the best commercials. It has been a winner at all of the shows and enjoys the supremacy of its class.

Each: Large, $1.00; Medium, 75c; Small, 50c. Bulblets: 15c; 10 for $1.00

GOLDEN ARROW

EUREKA

The best white sport of Picardy I have seen. Whiter than Leading Lady and definitely in the 500 class. Florets are firmly attached. Clean grower, very tall and straight. Grows to 65 inches with a 30-inch flower head. Twenty buds with 8 open, 4 showing color. Heavy propagation and good germination. Blooms in 80 days.

Each: Large, $3.50; Medium, $3.00; Small, $2.50

UNIQUE, MODERN STORAGE AND WAREHOUSE FACILITY

INTERIOR VIEW

Departing radically from the type of "bulb house" in common use, John Bastian, Bulbs have introduced and by actual use developed a new type bulb storage and warehouse.

Incorporating new ideas, abrupt departures from former practices while retaining all the proven features used in the past.

Modern throughout, this 40 x 90 foot, two-story building is as completely insulated as it was possible to construct. Walls, roof, ceilings and windows were insulated as constructed. The doors of commercial walk-in freezer type are heavily insulated and swing from special hinges.

The vermin proof concrete floor was built for stress and to resist wear.

Complete air conditioning and constant temperature control combine to assure better storage conditions.

Eleven tray height storage shelves with easy glide features carry identification labels corresponding with the constant inventory lists.

Multiple control lighting provides "where desired" illumination.

Sorting, packing and shipping facilities are provided.

There is even a "niche" for cups, plaques and ribbons, and already this is "comfortably" filled.

Exterior view showing overhanging construction. One of the ventilators is visible on roof. Note small type windows, slightly recessed, are placed to conform with air conditioning unit.

Also shown is the Dodge Power wagon, as well known as its companion Jeep in Southern Oregon Glad Land.

Josephine County and the county seat city of Grants Pass are known, by virtue of the annual August Glad show, as "Joyous Josephine and Glad Grants Pass".
